Local Residents Chosen as Provincial Representatives for First Olympic Volunteer Team

The City of Prince Albert is pleased to acknowledge Allan and Cindy Chizek as Saskatchewan's Ambassadors to the Olympic Games. Mr. and Mrs. Chizek are local Prince Albert residents and were announced yesterday as one of the first 14 volunteers chosen by VANOC to represent their home province or territory.

“I would like to congratulate Allan and Cindy on being selected to represent both Saskatchewan and Prince Albert on a national scale at the 2010 Olympics,” said Mayor Jim Scarrow. “It is a unique opportunity and an experience I expect will stay with them for a lifetime. “

Mr. and Mrs. Chizek, along with the other 13 volunteers, are among the first 200 volunteers offered Games-time roles with Vancouver 2010 out of almost 64,000 applications received so far through www.volunteer.workopolis.com and www.vancouver2010.com. Volunteer positions will be offered throughout the summer and continuing up to Games time.

Allan and his wife Cindy are both big curling enthusiasts that have volunteered at several international curling events including the World Curling Tour in 2004 and the 2004 Brier.
