FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dancers, Singers, Hoop Dancers Needed for Olympic Torch Relay Celebration

This could be your once in a lifetime opportunity

Auditions for the Prince Albert Torch Relay Celebration entertainers will be held Saturday, November 21 and Sunday, November 22 at the Performing Arts Warehouse in Prince Albert.

Local talent will share the Olympic Torch stage with professional singers at this televised, public outdoor event on January 11, 2010. The 106-day Torch Relay finishes Feb. 12 at BC Place in Vancouver, where the torch will light the Olympic cauldron to officially start the 2010 Winter Games.

The Celebration Committee is looking for:

- Dancers with strong technique, hip hop and jazz training. You will be required to learn a dance combination on the day of the audition. You do not need to prepare a solo.
- School aged Singers who can move well and follow choreography. Singers should come with one song prepared and either an accompanist or vocal free sound track. A piano is available.
- Aboriginal Hoop Dancers. Come to the audition with your own props and music, and with a choreographed piece you are prepared to show.

Rehearsals for the Olympic Torch Celebration will take place on weekends prior to the January 11 celebration.

To book an audition time, please call the Performing Arts Warehouse at 764-5353.
