13th Annual Canadian Challenge Sled Dog Race

City closes Central Avenue Wednesday February 10 and brings in extra snow along the route for the annual event

February 10th marks the 13th annual Canadian Challenge Sled Dog Race. Central Avenue will be closed from 12th Street to River Street for the placement of extra snow and the race itself. Snow is expected to be cleared from the area and Central Avenue opened again at approximately 4 p.m.

Bus routes will be changed until 4 p.m as follows:

- West Hill, West Flat and the All Day Routes will go down 1st Avenue West and stop between 10th Street and 11th Street West. Watch for temporary signage in the area.
- East Flat route will go down 1st Avenue East and will stop one block east of the usual Central Avenue location at City Hall. Watch for temporary signage in the area.

Maps of the bus route detours will be posted on the buses.
