Summer Playground Program set to begin

The City of Prince Albert Community Services Department is set to begin its annual summer Playground Program on Monday, July 5th continuing until August 20, 2010. This free program is offered at ten park locations throughout the city for children 5 to 12 years of age to enjoy a wide variety of games, sports, water fun, crafts and special events all summer long.

There will also be a summer sports program, art program and cultural program along side these planned daily activities. These special programs will visit each of the playgrounds so all children will have the chance to experience them for the first time.

Each playground is staffed with two qualified and trained playground supervisors. The playgrounds are open Monday to Thursday from 12:00 to 5:30 pm and Friday's from 1:00 to 5:00 pm. Ella Muzzy in Kinsmen Park is also open on weekends from 1:00 to 5:00 pm.

“The playground program is a wonderful way to keep children busy through out the summer, providing exercise and a creative outlet for them,” stated Curtis Olsen, a Recreation Programmer for the City of Prince Albert. “Parents often comment how great it is to have their children participate in these fun outdoor activities in a supervised setting instead of being stuck indoors all summer long.”
