Terry Fox Award – Nominations being accepted

Nomination deadline is December 17, 2010

Nominations are now being accepted for the City of Prince Albert Terry Fox Award.

The Terry Fox Award was established by the City of Prince Albert to recognize those traits in one of its young citizens which best emulate the ideals and inspiration of one of Canada's leading citizens, the late Terry Fox. This annual award serves to perpetuate the memory of his heroic achievement, while acknowledging tangible accomplishments for one who closely identifies with Terry's ideals.

Eligible candidates may be male or female and must be under 21 years of age in the calendar year of the award. Candidates must have been a resident of the City of Prince Albert at least four continuous months during the calendar year of the award or in full-time attendance at a recognized educational institution within the city. Persons who have been nominated in prior years but who were not successful, remain eligible for nomination provided all other conditions are met.

Complete eligibility requirements and nomination procedure is available on the City of Prince Albert website: www.citypa.ca

Nomination deadline is Friday, December 17, 2010
